Information Communication Technology: Taking Responsibility for Development

THE Ministry of Communications, Works, Transport and Public Utilities has strongly urged all members of the telecommunications and information fraternity to take responsibility for the countries development, by participating in the 8th Telecommunications Policy Seminar (TPS 8) to be hosted by the Caribbean Telecommunications Union (CTU) in Barbados on September 14 -15 this year.

The Seminar, which will be held under the theme "ICTs: Creating Opportunities for Progress" is targeting a wide cross section of the information and communication technology sector, including public and private sector agencies and officials, policy makers, regulators, operators, service providers and representatives from the academic fraternity.

The CTU has embarked on this initiative in recognition of the crucial role of information technology for the development of the Caribbean Region. Among its objectives, the CTU seeks to identify the challenges facing Caribbean Governments in ensuring that citizens are able to benefit from advancements in communications technologies in all sectors.

The CTU invites interested persons to contact the organization at www.c-t-u.org or ctunion@c-t-u.org.

Govt Pays No Fees Whatsoever for Cuban Scholarship Students!

PRIME Minister, Dr Kenny D. Anthony has expressed extreme disappointment with the front page headline in Monday's (August 23) issue of the Star newspaper, which states that the Government is unable to pay "school fees" for St. Lucian students pursuing scholarship studies in Cuba.

The Star states in its headline: "Kenny Can't Pay Cuba School Fees!" It also adds that the affected students are "outraged."

The Prime Minister said: "This headline is really unfortunate, as it gives the impression that the government is unable to pay school fees for St. Lucian students studying in Cuba."

He explained: "The fact is that the Government of St. Lucia has never, ever had to pay school fees for St. Lucian students, nor do the students have to pay for boarding, lodging or meals in Cuba, the costs of which are borne by the Government of Cuba."

According to Dr Anthony, "What the Government of St. Lucia offered each student in Cuba up to now was US$1,000 per year for a return trip home and US$100 monthly as a stipend."

But while the Government was able to, and kept that commitment, in view of the heavy annual costs, the Government announced in its last Budget Address why it now has to review that situation. He recalled that the government also announced what the new arrangements would be back in April.

The Prime Minister said at its meeting of Monday, August 3, 2004, the Cabinet of Ministers agreed to the establishment of a Loan Guarantee facility on behalf of the holders of Cuban scholarships.

Under the loan guarantee facility, which is being administered by the Bank of St. Lucia, students studying in Cuba can borrow between EC$9,720 and EC$70,000 each, with 85% of the guaranteed loan amount to be reimbursed. The lending institution is expected to assume liability for the other 15% of the guaranteed loan amount.

This facility came into force on August 1, 2004 for new students going to Cuba this year, and will come into force from August 1, 2005 for those who are already in Cuba.

The Prime Minister has indicated that he will certainly consider the report of the meeting between the students and Ministry and Treasury officials, and emphasised that existing students will not be affected by the new regime until next year.

Prime Minister Anthony says the Ministry of Finance will continue to work with the Bank of St. Lucia to ensure the conditions for the loans are not onerous or burdensome for the students.

Measures Approved to Regularize Issuance of Visas

THE Cabinet of Ministers has approved recommendations for the imposition of tighter visa entry requirements for St. Lucia.

Speaking during his monthly Cabinet Press Briefing on Tuesday, August 24th, 2004, Cabinet Secretary, Dr. James Fletcher explained that with the exception of the major tourism markets, such as the United States of America, visa requirements will have to be met by visitors from countries where visa stipulations are imposed on St. Lucians.

"The government on the advice of the Ministry of External Affairs and the Ministry of Home Affairs have really sought to put in place a reciprocal arrangement or visa. For example those countries with one or two exceptions where St. Lucians are required to produce visas in order to enter those countries, there is a reciprocal arrangement that has been put in place where the government is requiring that persons from those countries will require visas to visit St. Lucia," Dr. Fletcher said.

Dr. Fletcher further implied that the new measures would assist St. Lucia in regularizing the issuance of visas by St. Lucia Overseas Missions and Consul Offices: "One of the things found was that no two visa stamps issued by the Consul offices were the same, with the exception of the New York and Washington offices. So if somebody applied for a visa to enter St. Lucia, and that person applied from the St. Lucia High Commission in London, then the stamp they would receive for that visa would be entirely different from the stamp that they would receive from New York so it created a certain amount of confusion."

The measures are also viewed as timely in light of the atmosphere of security concerns that governments within the region are trying to address.

PM to Appeal to T&T on Behalf of OECS

PRIME Minister Dr. Kenny D. Anthony has said that the recent soaring oil prices spell disaster for developing countries particularly the non-oil based CARICOM economies, and would seek assistance from the Government of Trinidad & Tobago with the aim of cushioning the impact.

Oil prices have now soared to record levels on the world market, topping the US$50 mark per barrel. The last time Dr. Anthony addressed the nation on oil prices in July, prices had risen from US$19.41 per barrel in January 2002 to a peak of US$42.33 per barrel on June 1, 2004. On Friday (August 21), the price per barrel of crude oil went just over US$50. And although it went down to US$47 per barrel on Monday (August 23), analysts around the world predicted that this was only a temporary decrease.

Citing the inability of the Organisation of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) to increase production so as to decrease prices, the analysts said that the runaway price per barrel could soon reach a high of US$60 per barrel.

Dr. Anthony said that the situation was so serious that it warranted discussions with the Government of Trinidad & Tobago, to assist the member-states of the OECS to cushion the impact of the increased oil prices. In this regard, he said that he would activate a decision of the Heads of Government of the OECS to enter into talks with the Government of Trinidad & Tobago on matters of mutual interest between the OECS and the twin-island, oil rich republic.

One such subject of mutual interest said the Prime Minister, was petroleum. He said that he would write his Trinidad & Tobago counterpart, Prime Minister Patrick Manning, on his return to work after completing medical attention in Cuba, proposing a meeting between Trinidad & Tobago and a sub-committee of OECS Prime Ministers to discuss bilateral matters.

A report carried in the Sunday (August 22) issue of Trinidad & Tobago's Newsday newspaper indicated that the oil-based Republic stood to earn a windfall from the current steep prices for oil on the world market.

St Lucia Fire Service Celebrates 30 Years of Fire

ON September 14th, 2004, the St Lucia Fire Service will officially celebrate “3 Decades of Preserving Life and Property with Integrity and Excellence.” To commemorate the occasion, the Fire Service has scheduled a series of community events from September 12 – 18, 2004.

Public Relations Officer of the St Lucia Fire Service, Hilton Oculien said that the firemen have already begun activities to celebrate 30 Years of Service, such as repainting pedestrian crossings in Soufriere, Micoud, Dennery and Gros Islet.

“As an Emergency Response Unit we are looking at the safety protocol that exists and trying to enhance some of them, like giving the pedestrian (crossings) a face lift. We are also targeting the elderly in the community and during the week of activities, on the 15th to be exact, we will be doing two community projects at elderly institutions.”

The 30th anniversary celebrations will also include other community related events, such as a Church Service and Parade, various Sports Competitions, and will culminate with a Formal Dinner and Awards Ceremony on September 18, 2004.

CARDICIS Workshop to Empowerment the Creole Language

THE Creole Language will soon receive a double dose of empowerment and international exposure.

This is the expected outcome of the Francophone CARDICIS workshop designed to assist the Caribbean region in breaking down communication barriers caused by language and cultural differences.

Deirdre Williams, one of the organizers of the workshop said that the event would draw participants from across the globe, to examine the idea of computer communication using the dominant languages of the region.

“The meeting emphasises civil society and will happen in four languages - Spanish, French, English and St. Lucian Creole. This happening really empowers Creole and will also empower St. Lucia as a venue for this type of activity. People are coming from all over the region, from North America, from Europe and from Africa,” Ms. Williams said.

Participants of the workshop will have to arrive at joint positions that encompass a vision of an integrated Caribbean in the context of facilitating shared knowledge societies.

The workshop will take place from the 30th of August to the 1st of September 2004 at the Bay Gardens Hotel in Saint Lucia. The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO) is also playing an integral role in ensuring the successful execution of the workshop.
