Sea Turtle Fishery

THE Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries wishes to inform the public that the sea turtle fishery is in effect from October 012006 to December 31, 2006, both days inclusive.

To ensure sustainable harvesting of this resource, all fishers and the public are required to adhere to the following conditions:

Only traditional sea turtle fishermen shall partake in the sea turtle fishery.

The sea turtle fishery shall extend from October 1st, 2006 to December 31st, 2006, regardless of weather conditions, unless otherwise specified by the Chief Fisheries Officer. No authorised, traditional sea turtle fisherman shall fish for, remove from the fishery waters, or at any time have in his possession, expose for sale, sell or purchase any sea turtle from January 1st, 2007, unless otherwise specified by the Chief Fisheries Officer.

Only Green, Hawksbill and Loggerhead sea turtles shall be permitted in the catch. All Leatherback sea turtles caught shall be released immediately by fishermen.

Only sea turtle nets shall be used for targeting sea turtles during the above-stipulated period. No other gear shall be permitted for the targeting of sea turtles.

A maximum of three sea turtle nets shall be permitted per traditional sea turtle fisherman, for the targeting of sea turtles.

There shall be no fishing of sea turtles within 100 metres of the shore.

There shall be no fishing for sea turtles over coral reef areas.

Sea turtles shall be landed whole.

Sea turtles shall be taken to a designated landing site, where sea turtle data shall be collected, unless otherwise specified by the Chief Fisheries Officer.

No sea turtles shall be slaughtered or sold on beaches or in other open places. Only designated landing sites and fish markets shall be used.

All fishermen shall permit the collection of data by Fisheries Data Collectors and or/Fisheries Officers.

Only sea turtles at and above the sizes stipulated in the Fisheries Regulations No. 9 of 1994.

No person shall at any time, disturb, remove from the fishery waters, expose for sale, sell, purchase at any time or have in his possession any sea turtle eggs.

No sea turtle shells shall be sold to locals or visitors.

No sea turtle shells shall be exported.

No sea turtle meat shall be exported.

No attempts shall be made to sell sea turtle meat to tourism establishments that cater primarily to visitors.

Each contravention of the above Conditions shall result in a maximum fine of five thousand dollars ($5000) as stipulated under the Fisheries Act No. 10 of 1984 and the Fisheries Regulations No. 9 of 1994.

The Department of Fisheries will be conducting monitoring activities islandwide to obtain an estimation of the landings during this harvest period and will be working along with the Royal Saint Lucia Police Force, the Customs Department and other enforcement agencies to ensure that all persons abide by the harvest conditions stipulated above.

All harvesting activities must cease after the last day of the open period. No persons are allowed to have in their possession or expose for sale any sea turtle or sea turtle products after the closure of the harvest period. Fishers and the general public are hereby urged to observe and comply with the aforementioned conditions.
