Update of National Profile/ Schools Inventories

Consultant: Chemical Inventories
Consultant

Objective: To develop an updated
National Chemicals Profile for Saint Lucia.

Background:

The Government of Saint Lucia, through the Sustainable Development and Environment Division of the Ministry of Sustainable Development, Energy, Science and Technology, is currently [in the early phase of] implementing the project Effective Chemicals Management in aid of fulfilling its obligations under various multilateral environmental agreements on chemicals, the St. George's Declaration of Principles on Environmental Sustainability and the National Environmental Strategy. The National Environmental Strategy provides the broad framework for environmental management, including chemicals management, in Saint Lucia. One of the key activities of the project is to conduct a cross sectoral assessment of chemicals in use and their releases in order to improve the understanding and knowledge of the use and management of chemicals on the island.

Information regarding the categories and volume of chemicals being imported as well as how these chemicals are handled, used and eventually disposed of is crucial to establishing an effective chemicals management system. Proper handling of chemicals and their waste, including transportation, storage and disposal and the established mechanisms to reduce or eliminate risk to people and the environment are at the heart of chemicals management. Therefore, an assessment of the quality and quantities of chemicals being used and the regulatory framework (legal or non- legal) within which the movement and handling of chemicals occur must be conducted in order to generate a comprehensive national chemicals profile.

The last national chemicals profile assessment was completed in 2006. Since then, there have been many developments in chemicals management locally and internationally, including the decision to include nine new POPs at the Conference of Parties to the Stockholm Convention in 2009. As a consequence, it has become necessary to update the national chemical profile to reflect these developments.

The Ministry of Sustainable Development, Energy, Science and Technology is seeking to contract consultancy services to undertake an assessment of chemicals in use across various sectors including agriculture, healthcare, industry and education, in order to (i) inform priority areas for intervention and (ii) establish the basis for better informed planning and management decisions geared towards achieving national objectives and priorities for sound chemicals management, and those of the Stockholm Convention on Persistent Organic Pollutants (POPs).

Disposing obsolete pesticides and chemical waste

Enhancing public awareness on the use and handling of chemicals among targeted groups

The Project will support the implementation of chemicals-related multilateral environmental agreements (MEAs) and conventions towards a holistic and integrated approach to chemicals management, building and enhancing the policy, legislative and institutional framework for chemicals management in Saint Lucia.

Safe chemical handling and storage are both necessary elements of effective chemicals management. As the first point of entry, the chemical storage facilities of The Saint Lucia Air and Sea Ports Authority (SLASPA) needs to be constantly monitored and evaluated to ensure that safe handling and storage procedures are being maintained. Facilities must have the capacity to safely accommodate various chemicals which have different handling and storage requirements. This is to ensure that especially hazardous material are handled and stored in conditions that limit the possibility of adverse impacts and exposure to humans and the natural environment. Storage facilities also need to have proper response mechanisms in cases where stored chemicals are released or damaged either through improper handling or as a result of a disaster. This calls for an assessment of the human and physical capacities of the facilities to determine their level of compliance to established standards for the effective handling and storage of these chemicals.

Scope of work

Working closely with the Ministry of Sustainable Development, Energy, Science and Technology, the Consultant will:

Undertake an assessment of SLASPA's facilities for the storage of hazardous chemicals, including explosive material, in relation to:

Safe handling and storage

Physical and human capacity

Emergency procedures for handling on site accidents and spills

Identify the weaknesses and strengths of storage facilities

Identify measures needed to be taken (short term and long term) to improve SLASPA's facilities

Hold necessary national consultations and or meetings in undertaking the assessment

Deliverables

A work-plan with timelines and outputs at the inception of the consultancy

Preliminary report on the methodology to be used, output of the assessment

Draft report on assessment conducted including identification of remedial actions necessary along with a costing to facilitate any recommended improvements in hard copy (1) and soft copy (1)

Comprehensive final report in hard copy (2) and soft copy (1)

Duration

The total contract duration will be three (3) months, inclusive of consultations.

Profile of the Consultant

The consultant should:

Hold a degree in chemical engineering, chemistry, environmental sciences or relevant related fields

Have previous experience in undertaking similar assessments

Have at least 5-years experience in the environmental field

Be aware of the Stockholm Conventions and other MEAs and their provisions sound chemicals management

Be aware of best environmental practices for the management of chemicals throughout their life cycle

Capable of understanding and expressing him/herself in English

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Analysis of the chemical composition of unknown chemicals remaining in stockpile

Consultant:

Analysis of unknown chemicals

Objective:

To ascertain the chemical composition of unknown chemicals remaining in stockpile

Background

The Project, Effective Chemicals Management in Saint Lucia, seeks to contribute to the integrated and effective management of chemicals in Saint Lucia by:

Strengthening policy and regulatory framework for chemicals management

Improving the understanding and knowledge of the use and management of chemicals

Improving storage & handling of obsolete chemicals and pesticides

Developing capacity for safe disposal and/or treatment of chemical waste.

Disposing obsolete pesticides and chemical waste

Enhancing public awareness on the use and handling of chemicals among targeted groups

The Project will support the implementation of chemicals-related multilateral environmental agreements (MEAs) and conventions towards a holistic and integrated approach to chemicals management, building and enhancing the policy, legislative and institutional framework for chemicals management in Saint Lucia.

Chemical material remaining in stockpile is a potential threat to humans and the environment particularly if the nature and composition of these chemicals are unknown. Safe handling, storage and disposal of these chemicals become problematic if they have not been accurately identified or labeled. A chemical assessment of chemicals in stockpile would be useful in determining the most effective and appropriate measures that should be employed for the safe handling, storage and disposal of these chemicals.

Scope of work

Working closely with the Ministry of Sustainable Development, Energy, Science and Technology, the Consultant will:

Identify stockpiles to be analysed

Prepare an approach to undertaking the analysis

Undertake a chemical analysis of the composition of unknown chemicals remaining in stockpile

Report on the storage condition of the chemicals in stockpile and make recommendations for future action

Hold necessary national consultations in conducting the analysis

Deliverables

A work-plan with timelines and outputs at the inception of the consultancy

Preliminary report on the methodology to be used, output of the assessment

Draft report on analyses and assessments conducted in hard copy (1) and soft copy (1)

Comprehensive final report in hard copy (2) and soft copy (1)

Duration

The total contract duration will be two (2) months, inclusive of consultations.
