Opening Of Lobster Fishery 2012

THE Ministry of Agriculture, Food Production, Fisheries and Rural Development informs fishers, hotels, restaurants, other lobster purchasers and the general public that the Lobster Fishery Closure ends at midnight on August 1, 2012. Therefore, the lobster fishery (Open Season) opens on August 2nd 2012 until February 28th 2013, both days inclusive.

When the lobster fishery is open legal size lobsters which do not carry eggs and are not moulting may be fished for, sold, purchased and possessed. To ensure that the local fishery continues to be able to provide fresh, local lobsters to the local market both fishers and lobster purchasers MUST comply fully with the laws in place to protect the lobster resource from being overfished. According to the Fisheries Regulations Chapter 7.15:

No person shall harm, give, receive from anyone, or at anytime have in his possession, expose for sale, sell or purchase:

- any lobster that is undersized (i.e., with a carapace length of less than 9.5cm);
- any lobster carrying egg;
- any lobster which is moulting

No person shall:

- remove the eggs from a lobster, or have in his possession, or sell, or purchase a lobster from which the eggs have been removed;
- spear, hook or attempt to spear a lobster;
- sell any lobster that has been speared, hooked, or otherwise impaled, and

In this Regulation:

"lobster" includes the whole or any part of any lobster;

"undersized" means in relation to lobsters-

- less than 9.5 centimetres (3.75 ins.) in carapace length measured from the ridge at the base of the horns to the end of the carapace (back shell); or if the tail has been removed, a tail weight of less than 340 grams (12 ounces)*

(Fisheries Regulations Cap. 7.15 of the Revised Laws of St. Lucia)

* The Department of Fisheries requires all lobster to be landed whole.

Contravention of any of these Regulations is subject to a maximum fine of EC$5000.00 for each offence.

The Department of Fisheries seeks the cooperation of all individuals and urges members of the public to report to the marine police, district police stations or the Department of Fisheries, any person found harvesting, selling, consuming "or in possession of illegal lobsters when the 2012-2013 lobster fishery is open (open season).
