INCREASING SAINT LUCIA'S
 CAPACITY TO MONITOR
 MULTILATERAL ENVIRONMENTAL AGREEMENTS (MEAS)
 IMPLEMENTATION AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT PROJECT

TERMS OF REFERENCE For

Consultancy to Conduct Information Management Training Workshops

1 Background

In conducting the 2007 National Capacity Self-Assessment (NCSA) project development process, capacity limitations to implement the obligations arising from multilateral environmental conventions and other environmental initiatives critical to the island's sustainable development were underscored. These capacity needs were to be addressed at all levels (namely, systemic, institutional and individual). Addressing these needs would allow Saint Lucia to optimally utilize the opportunities for synergistic relationships. In addition, specific areas of training in information management research techniques and analysis would help address the gaps, and in so doing improve the islands' capacity to meet its obligations under Multilateral Environmental Agreements (MEAs). In particular, the report highlighted a number of gaps in acquiring and enhancing skills needed to ensure effective implementation of MEAs and environmental management initiatives.

While MEAs reflect the high level of awareness regarding global environmental threats and set an agreed framework for action in the research, policy and financial areas, there is the recognition that many agencies face challenges with data access, monitoring and evaluation as well as the capacity to utilize information acquired in decision making processes.

In Saint Lucia many of the agencies engaged in data collection lack the required capacity and/or ability to transform environmental information into decision making tools, and to effectively interpret and utilize the available data in the decision making process. The ability to effectively monitor MEAs has also been identified as a gap by stakeholders with the resultant need to build capacity among local experts to undertake the same.

The Government of Saint Lucia (GOSL) seeks to address the national need for decision makers to have access to the information based on science in order to inform decision-making. Additionally, GOSL seeks to enhance its ability to meet reporting requirements with respect to MEAs. In this regard, the Department of Sustainable Development is increasing its efforts to institute efficient measures for monitoring the implementation of MEAs. With support from the Global Environment Facility (GEF) and the United Nations Environment Program (UNEP), the Increasing Saint Lucia's Capacity to Monitor MEAs implementation and Sustainable Development Project will assist in enhancing capacity building and priorities through targeted interventions. Achieving this in an effective and efficient manner, the successful execution of the project, calls for targeted training of all key agencies engaged in environmental management and reporting.

To this end, a consultant will be engaged to provide expert training on five (5) of the areas identified during the 2007 National Capacity Self-Assessment (NCSA) project. The executing agency intends to engage a suitably qualified consultant to provide the requisite training as detailed in Table 2.

2 Objectives

The objectives of this consultancy are as follows:

1. To conduct training and equip public and private sector, civil society and nongovernmental officers in the use of environmental information to facilitate national, indicator-based reporting on conventions;

2. To facilitate advanced training workshops in, i) information management in records management (data collection), ii) data analysis and interpretation, iii) communicating environmental information and risk, iv) understanding and v) applying convention methodologies and monitoring and evaluation and;

3. To undertake cutting edge and future focused training which could be practically transferred into the workplace and facilitate training of trainers who could serve as focal points for internal agency transfer of skills.

3 Scope of Services

Training sessions will be held at the National ICT Centre and will be facilitated by the contracted consultant. The targeted agencies are listed will be supplied to the engaged consultant.

The Consultant is required to undertake services in keeping with the following tasks:

Task 1 - Create a training action plan, which must ensure that the necessary systems are in place, resources are accessible, and training can be sourced or designed, coordinated, delivered and positioned for greatest impact.

Task 2 - Develop a training module based on the requirements identified in Table 2.

Task 3 - Identify areas where a training of trainers' approach can be adopted.

Task 4 - Undertake a cross agency approach to training and ensure that all key agencies engaged in environmental management and reporting are targeted.

Task 5 - Evaluate the training administered by assessment and verification

4 Proposed Training Areas with Objectives, Target Group and Strategy2

A training plan is strategic to increasing the capacity of stakeholders engaged in MEA implementation and monitoring. Targeted agencies will receive training to improve information management, reporting for MEAs and sustainable development. The Consultant is free to propose additional agencies which could benefit from the proposed training, but have not been considered by the Department.

INTEGRATED ECOSYSTEM MANAGEMENT AND RESTORATION OF FORESTS ON THE SOUTH EAST COAST OF ST LUCIA GOVERNMENT OF SAINT LUCIA

TYPE OF SERVICE: Consultancy/subcontract

INTRODUCTION:

THE Government of Saint Lucia, through the Department of Sustainable Development (DSD) has received approval from the Global Environment Fund (GEF) Council to develop a project with a view to addressing the lack of integrated protection and sustainable management of ecosystems in the South East coastal area of Saint Lucia. As part of the initial phase, a Project Document (PRODOC) needs to be developed for submission to the GEF. This PRODOC is to be developed in collaboration with DSD, which is the executing agency, and the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) which is the implementing agency.

The DSD desires to attract a suitably qualified consultant/firm to develop the PRODOC in keeping with the following Terms of Reference (TORs).

BACKGROUND:

The South East (SE) Coast of Saint Lucia is known to be an area rich in biodiversity, and ripe for tourism development. Notwithstanding, the SE Coast has been largely overlooked with its vulnerable and disadvantaged communities increasingly at risk both ecologically and economically. While some knowledge exists of important ecosystem services, and globally significant biodiversity, there is a paucity of data available in this area. The Government of Saint Lucia (GOSL) has therefore identified this area as a priority for intervention and has sought approval for the programming of its sixth Global Environment Facility (GEF 6) allocation to address some of the issues in the SE Coast.

The main issue which the project seeks to address is the lack of integrated protection and sustainable management of ecosystems in the SE coastal area. Without sound management, the irreversible degradation of ecological services could adversely impact the socio-economic development and could lead to a gradual impoverishment of the region.

The project proposes a three-pronged solution to address this problem. The first aspect is to establish effective ecosystems management mechanisms. Second, the project will seek to rehabilitate and further protect degraded landscapes, based on improved mechanisms for land use planning and collaborative investment decision-making. Third, the project seeks to create economic opportunities, incentives and livelihoods for the primary natural resources users.

The DSD is seeking a suitable consultant/firm to develop a full-sized PRODOC to be submitted to the GEF. This PRODOC will be developed in collaboration with the DSD which is the executing agency, and the UNEP which is the implementing agency. The technical areas to be addressed in the development of this project document include issues relating to biodiversity, sustainable forest management, climate change mitigation and land degradation. Consequently, the applicants should ensure that their team comprises expertise in the following areas; Land Use Specialist, Policy Analyst, Renewable Energy Specialist, Social Scientist/Socio-economics Specialist, Terrestrial Biodiversity Specialist, Marine Biodiversity Specialist, Eco-tourism/Marketing Specialist, Science and Technology Entrepreneur (Agro-processing Specialist), Forest/Carbon Specialist with satellite imagery expertise.

SCOPE OF WORK:

The project seeks to enable sustainable economic development of the SE Coast by maintaining healthy ecosystems, sustainable livelihoods, and securing global environmental benefits.

Task 1: Preparation of Component 1- Ecosystems Management

- 1.1 Report on the existent baseline for the development of M&I system. This includes data on: what is available, how does the current monitoring activities are carried out, what will be the direct benefits of the M&I system, where will the system be hosted, sustainability plan for the system maintenance after the project, description of main users and beneficiaries, flow diagram showing how the system will operate.
- 1.2 Report on the strategy to be used to increase management effectiveness. This includes: description of the strategy and/or factors to be used/considered for increasing the management effectiveness, map with geo-reference points indicating location new protected areas and corridors, identification and information sheet of the key species that will be protected in the new areas and their ecological, cultural, social and economic importance.
- 1.3 Identify and build the capacity of at least three (3) possible private sector partners to ensure continuity of the management of the ecosystems and promoting sustainable development after the project ends. The selection criteria for identifying the private sector partners should be developed. This should be accompanied by selection criteria.

Task 2: Preparation of Component 2- Rehabilitated Landscapes

- 2.1. Identification of the most critically damaged areas with rehabilitation potential in the SE Coast where the project will be active. This identification should include geo-reference points. In addition the report should demonstrate the viability of the project and its impacts on communities and the environment. Tree species which will be used for reforestation should be appropriately identified and justified. Beneficiary communities should be identified using socio-economic considerations. Indicators to measure socio-economic impacts should be included in the results framework.
- 2.2. Identification of sea grass beds, reefs, mangroves and productive coastal systems that will be rehabilitated. Generation of maps, fact sheets of the zones and selection criteria. Development of a strategy for management and rehabilitation that will be further implemented and enhanced during the project. The description of the plan on how this rehabilitation will take place in each ecosystem is essential to substantiate the PRODOC.

- 2.3. Development of a plan/strategy or draft methodology including key aspects to consider for controlling erosion in areas exhibiting significant soil degradation and siltation. The strategy could be further developed during the project, but the basis for it and key criteria should be identified during Project Preparation Grant (PPG) phase.

Task 3: Preparation of Component 3- Sustainable Livelihoods

- 3.1. The report should include: beneficiary communities selected and criteria used; identification of suitable renewable energy technologies for each community, methodology and location for installation. Environmental and socio-economic studies should be carried out to support selection of communities, technologies and sites.
- 3.2. Data on Saint Lucia's tourism sector including main areas of interest, attractions, and a SWOT analysis to substantiate future investments as well as key partners for this output.
- 3.3. Identification of farmers, key partners, stakeholders for implementation of this component and farms that will be converted to agroforestry.
- 3.4. Identification of innovative and sustainable natural-resource based economic activities. This should include: selection of intervention sites, definition of activities and undertaking feasibility studies that will include environmental impacts and economic viability.
