NOTICE NO. 5 of 2019

IMPORTATION OF REGISTERED TRADEMARK GOODS

The Trade Marks Act Cap 13.30 makes provisions for the Comptroller of Customs to take action in relation to imported goods which infringe on registered trademark goods.

All registered trademark proprietors, agents and objectors are required to submit the following to allow the Customs Department to intercept infringing goods and enforce the provisions of the Trade Mark Act:

1. Letter informing the Customs Department of the trademark and the related goods, and an undertaking to pay any deposit, charges, rent and fees related to the detention or seizure of the goods.
2. Notice of Objection for Importation on the prescribed form.
3. Certificate of Registration of Trademark.
4. Sample of the goods under trademark where practicable.
5. Photographs (color) of goods under trademark

Where imported goods are found to infringe the provisions of goods registered under the Trade Mark Act Cap 13.30, the following shall be required:

1. Customs officers shall detain any goods fitting the description of the registered trademark goods for further verification by the trademark proprietor or objector. If the goods infringe the registered trademark, a seizure notice shall be issued for the goods.
2. The proprietor or objector shall pay a deposit amounting to the Customs Value of the consignment of goods detained or seized by the Customs Department. The payment of the deposit must be done before the seizure of the infringing goods and within seven (7) working days of its detention date.
3. Where the proprietor or objector fails to pay the deposit within seven (7) working days of the detention date of the trademark infringing goods, the Department may release the goods.

Please be guided accordingly.
