This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

A Sentencing Guideline for Drugs offences within the ECSC

Within the ECSC, in the nine member states and territories there are different drugs offences, and there are often different maximum sentences. For the purposes of this guideline, the expression 'drugs offence' will be used to cover all types of trafficking, cultivation, and possession with an intent to supply, import or export, whether as conspiracy or a substantive offence.

Applicability of Guideline

In sentencing for these offences, the Chief Justice has issued guidelines¹ and the court must apply the relevant guidelines and sentence accordingly, unless to do so would not be in the interests of justice. It is only permissible to depart from the guidelines in exceptional circumstances, where such departure can be justified. Clear reasons for not applying the guideline must be given when passing sentence.

It is required that every court will follow the steps below, with each relevant step being identified to the offender in public before the sentence is passed. Starting points and ranges apply to all adult offenders² whether they have pleaded guilty or been convicted after a trial. Credit for a guilty plea is taken into consideration only at Step 3.

Step 1

Consider the seriousness of the offence. Find the starting point by consulting the guideline and the grid below. Then adjust the figure within the range for the aggravating and mitigating factors of the offence.

Step 2

Adjust the figure within the range for the aggravating and mitigating factors affecting the offender.

² For persons below the age of 18, see the Practice Direction 8D on Sentencing Guidelines no. 4 of 2019.

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

Step 3 Adjust the figure on assessing discount for any plea of guilty, if applicable.
Step 4 Adjust the figure on assessing totality if sentencing for more than one offence.
Step 5 Give credit for time served on remand.
Step 6 Finally, consider ancillary orders, confiscation, compensation, etc, if applicable.
Pass the Sentence

The court must give reasons explaining the construction of the sentence in a way that can be readily understood by the defendant, in particular justifying any departure from the guideline.

Constructing the Sentence

STEP 1 The first step in constructing a sentence is to establish the starting point for the offence.

A drugs case requires an assessment of the quantity by weight of the drug involved (assuming 100% purity, with adjustment permitted for lower purity and/or higher strength, if known), and the role played by a defendant.

To establish the starting point for the offence within the relevant range, there are four stages within Step 1.

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

FIRST STAGE

The first stage is to determine the offence category based on quantity.

Categories arising from quantity are as follows:

QUANTITY - category 1 Cocaine - 20 kg or more Cannabis - 400 kg or more
QUANTITY - category 2 Cocaine - 5-20 kg Cannabis - 50-400 kg
QUANTITY - category 3 Cocaine – 100g–5 kg Cannabis – 1-50 kg
QUANTITY - category 4 Cocaine – up to 100 g Cannabis – up to 1 kg

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

SECOND STAGE

The second stage is to determine the role played by the defendant with reference to the non-exhaustive lists of factors below. It is open to a court to find that a defendant falls between two roles.

LEADING ROLE

- Directing or organising
- Buying and selling on a commercial scale
- Substantial links to, and influence on, others in a chain
- Close links to original source
- Expectation of substantial financial gain
- Uses business as cover
- Abuses a position of trust

SIGNIFICANT ROLE

- Operational or management function within a chain
- Involves others in the operation whether by pressure, influence, intimidation or reward, especially if those involved are children
- Motivated by financial or other advantage, whether or not operating alone
- Some awareness and understanding of scale of operation
- Selling drugs to school children or in prison

LESSER ROLE

- Performs a limited function under direction
- Involved by pressure, coercion, intimidation
- Involvement through youth, naivety or exploitation
- No influence on those above in a chain
- Very little, if any, awareness or understanding of the scale of operation
- If trafficking drugs solely for personal use (considering reasonableness of account in all the circumstances)

SAINT LUCIA GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

THIRD STAGE

Having determined the quantity and role find the starting point by consulting the grid below – applicable for both cocaine and cannabis.

Maximum sentence is 'x'³.

Percentages are approximations and may not divide neatly, so that some adjustment is permissible.

QUANTITY	Leading Role - A	Significant Role - B	Lesser Role - C
Category 1	SP 65% x Range 50-80% x	SP 50% x Range 35-65% x	SP 35% x Range 20-50% x
Category 2	SP 50% x Range 35-65% x	SP 35% x Range 20-50% x	SP 20% x Range 10-30% x
Category 3	SP 35% x Range 20-50% x	SP 20% x Range 10-30% x	SP 10% x Non-custodial - 20% x
Category 4	Non-custodial (high level)	Non-custodial (medium level)	Non-custodial (low level)

³ Where the maximum sentence is life imprisonment, simply for the purposes of the calculation 'x' is to be treated as 30 years, (but please note that this does not have the effect of meaning a sentence where the maximum is life can never be more than 30 years).

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

FOURTH STAGE

Having determined the starting point, consider the following non-exhaustive list of aggravating and mitigating factors of the offence and adjust upwards or downwards if required, taking care not to double-count factors considered in stages 1 and 2.

AGGRAVATING FACTORS of offence

- Sophisticated nature of concealment
- Attempts to avoid detection
- Attempts to conceal or dispose of evidence
- Exposure of others to more than usual danger, for example drugs cut with harmful substances
- Presence of weapon

MITIGATING FACTORS of offence

- Lack of sophistication as to nature of concealment
- Mistaken belief of the offender regarding the type of drug, taking into account the reasonableness of such belief in all the circumstances
- Dealing to support own habit

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D numbers 1 to 4 of 2019

STEP 2

Adjust the figure within the range for the aggravating and mitigating factors affecting the offender.

These may include:

AGGRAVATING FACTORS of offender

- Previous convictions for drug offences
- Relevant convictions for other offences
- Offence committed whilst on bail

MITIGATING FACTORS of offender

- Good character
- Physical or mental disability or ill-health
- Remorse
- If an addict, offender is taking steps towards rehabilitation
- Age and/or lack of maturity
- Offending motivated by genuinely desperate circumstances
- Assistance given to the authorities

STEP 3

Credit should be given for a guilty plea as appropriate. A reduction of one-third should be given for a guilty plea entered at the earliest practicable opportunity. Credit will usually reduce significantly the later the plea.

STEP 4

Adjust the figure on assessing totality if sentencing for more than one offence.

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

STEP 5

Credit must be given for time spent on remand for the relevant offence, to be calculated with precision.

STEP 6

Finally, consider ancillary orders, confiscation, compensation, etc, if applicable. Drugs and paraphernalia should be forfeited and destroyed. In addition, consideration should be given to the confiscation of vehicles, boats and other property used in the commission of the offence. It may be appropriate to commence an investigation into the proceeds of crime and/or civil recovery of assets.

Pass the Sentence

The court must give reasons explaining the construction of the sentence in a way that can be readily understood by the defendant, in particular justifying any departure from the guideline.

⁴ See Gomes v The State 2015 UKPC 8, see para 12; Shonovia Thomas v The Queen Appeal no.6 of 2010; and Romeo Da Costa Hall v The Queen 2011 CCJ 6.

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

A Compendium Sentencing Guideline
of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court

Offences of Dishonesty

This compendium sentencing guideline will deal with offences of dishonesty, beginning with theft and robbery, and sections will be added to in time, to deal with burglary and other offences.

Applicability of Guideline

In sentencing for these offences, the Chief Justice has issued guidelines and the court must apply the relevant guidelines and sentence accordingly, unless to do so would not be in the interests of justice. It is only permissible to depart from the guidelines in exceptional circumstances, where such departure can be justified. Clear reasons for not applying the guideline must be given when passing sentence.

It is expected that every court will follow the steps below, with each relevant step being identified to the offender in public before the sentence is passed. Starting points and ranges apply to all adult offenders¹ whether they have pleaded guilty or been convicted after a trial. Credit for a guilty plea is taken into consideration only at Step 3.

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

Step 1

Consider the seriousness of the offence. Find the starting point by consulting the guideline and the grid below. Then adjust the figure within the range for the aggravating and mitigating factors of the offence.

Step 2

Adjust the figure within the range for the aggravating and mitigating factors affecting the offender.

Step 3

Adjust the figure on assessing discount for any plea of guilty, if applicable.

Step 4

Adjust the figure on assessing totality if sentencing for more than one offence.

Step 5

Give credit for time served on remand.

Step 6

Finally, consider ancillary orders, confiscation, compensation, etc, if applicable.

Pass the Sentence

The court must give reasons explaining the construction of the sentence in a way that can be readily understood by the defendant, in particular justifying any departure from the guideline.

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

THEFT – section 1²

Within the ECSC, in the nine member states and territories there are sometimes different words used to describe the dishonest appropriation of property belonging to others, (e.g. the words larceny or stealing are often used), and there are sometimes different maximum sentences. For the purposes of this guideline, the word 'theft' will be used generically, to embrace a wide variety of offences of dishonesty, including receiving stolen goods and offences involving fraud or deception, and whether as conspiracy or as substantive offences.

The first step in constructing a sentence is to establish the starting point for the offence.

A theft case requires an assessment of the seriousness of the offence and its consequences by reference to the harm caused. In assessing seriousness, this should include reference to the culpability of the offender.

To establish the starting point for the offence within the relevant range, there are four stages within Step 1.

FIRST STAGE

The first stage is to consider consequence by assessing the harm caused by the offence.

CONSEQUENCE may be demonstrated by the following, apart from value:

- Items stolen were of substantial value to the victim, regardless of monetary worth
- High level of inconvenience caused to the victim or others
- Consequential financial harm to victim or others, eg praedial larceny
- Emotional distress
- Fear or loss of confidence caused by the crime
- Risk of or actual injury to persons or damage to property
- Impact of theft on a business
- Damage to heritage assets

² As at 17 September 2019.

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

Categories arising from consequence are as follows:

CONSEQUENCE – category 1 - highest

Very high value goods (above $250000 in the High Court, above $10000 in the Magistrates Court), or Severe harm to the victim or others.

CONSEQUENCE - category 2 - high

High value goods ($50000 to $250000 in the High Court, $5000 to $10000 in the Magistrates Court), or Substantial harm to the victim or others.

CONSEQUENCE - category 3 - medium

Medium value goods ($10000 to $50000 in the High Court, $500 to $5000 in the Magistrates Court), or Significant harm to the victim or others.

CONSEQUENCE – category 4 Lesser

Low value goods (up to $10000 in the High Court and up to $500 in the Magistrates Court), or Little or no harm to the victim or others.

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

SECOND STAGE

The second stage is to consider seriousness by assessing the culpability of the offender.

Levels of seriousness may be demonstrated by one or more of the following:

Seriousness – Level A (High)

- A leading role where offending is part of a group activity
- Involvement of others through coercion, intimidation or exploitation
- Breach of a high degree of trust
- Sophisticated nature of offence/significant planning
- Theft involving intimidation or the use or threat of force
- Looting
- Targeting of tourists
- Deliberately targeting victim on basis of vulnerability
- Theft involving breaking and entering

Seriousness – Level B (Medium)

- A significant role where offending is part of a group activity
- Some degree of planning involved
- Breach of some degree of trust
- All other cases where characteristics for levels A or C are not present

Seriousness – Level C (Lesser)

- Performed limited function under direction
- Involved through coercion, intimidation or exploitation
- Little or no planning
- Limited awareness or understanding of offence

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

This guideline applies to theft sentences both in the High Court and the Magistrates Court. Disparity in sentence owing to lower sentencing powers in the Magistrates court may arise for similar offending. If so, adjustment in applying the guideline is appropriate.

THIRD STAGE

Having determined the consequence and the level of seriousness find the starting point by consulting the grid below.

Maximum sentence is 'x'.

Percentages are approximations and may not divide neatly, so that some adjustment is permissible.

	High Seriousness – level A	Medium Seriousness – level B	Lesser Seriousness – level C
Consequence – category 1	SP 75% x Range 60-90% x	SP 60% x Range 45-75% x	SP 50% x Range 35-65% x
Consequence – category 2	SP 50% x Range 35-65% x	SP 35% x Range 20-50% x	SP 20% x Range 10-30% x
Consequence – category 3	SP 35% x Range 20-50% x	SP 20% x Range 10-30% x	SP 10% x Range non-custodial - 20% x
Consequence – category 4	SP 10% x Range non-custodial – 20%	SP 5% x Range non-custodial – 15%	Non-custodial

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

FOURTH STAGE

Having determined the starting point, consider the following non-exhaustive list of aggravating and mitigating factors of the offence and adjust upwards or downwards if required, taking care not to double-count factors considered in stages 1 and 2.

AGGRAVATING FACTORS of the offence

- Stealing goods as a business
- Steps taken to prevent the victim reporting
- Offender motivated by intention to cause harm or out of revenge
- Offence committed over sustained period of time
- Attempts to conceal/dispose of evidence
- Blame wrongly placed on others
- Attempt to conceal identity

MITIGATING FACTORS of the offence

- Inappropriate degree of trust or responsibility if it helps to explain why the offence occurred
- Involved because of coercion, intimidation or exploitation
- Minor role in group offending
- Property restored

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

STEP 2

Adjust the figure within the range for the aggravating and mitigating factors affecting the offender. These may include:

AGGRAVATING FACTORS of offender

- Previous convictions for theft offences
- Relevant convictions for other offences
- Offence committed whilst on bail

MITIGATING FACTORS of offender

- Good character
- Physical or mental disability or ill-health
- Remorse, particularly where evidenced by voluntary reparation to the victim
- Steps taken to address offending behavior
- Age and/or lack of maturity
- Offending motivated by genuinely desperate circumstances
- Assistance given to the authorities

STEP 3

Credit should be given for a guilty plea as appropriate. A reduction of one-third should be given for a guilty plea entered at the earliest practicable opportunity. Credit will usually reduce significantly the later the plea.

STEP 4

Adjust the figure on assessing totality if sentencing for more than one offence.

STEP 5

Credit must be given for time spent on remand for the relevant offence, to be calculated with precision.

³ See the requirements for assessing time on remand in Gomes v The State 2015 UKPC 8, see para 12; Shonovia Thomas v The Queen Appeal no.6 of 2010; and Romeo Da Costa Hall v The Queen 2011 CCJ 6.

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

STEP 6

Finally, consider ancillary orders, confiscation, compensation, etc, if applicable.

Pass the Sentence

The court must give reasons explaining the construction of the sentence in a way that can be readily understood by the defendant, in particular justifying any departure from the guideline.

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

ROBBERY – section 2⁴

Within the ECSC, in the nine member states and territories there are different approaches to robbery, particularly with or without firearms, and there are often different maximum sentences. For the purposes of this guideline, the word ‘robbery’ will be used generically to cover all types, and whether as conspiracy or a substantives offence.

STEP 1

The first step in constructing a sentence is to establish the starting point for the offence.

A robbery case requires an assessment of the seriousness of the offence and its consequences by reference to the harm caused. In assessing seriousness, this should include reference to the culpability of the offender.

To establish the starting point for the offence within the relevant range, there are four stages within Step 1.

⁴ As at 17 September 2019.

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

FIRST STAGE

The first stage is to consider consequence by assessing the harm caused by the offence.

CONSEQUENCE may be demonstrated by one or more of the following, apart from value of the items taken:

- Items stolen were of significant value to the victim, regardless of monetary worth
- High level of inconvenience caused to the victim or others
- Consequential financial harm to victim or others
- Emotional distress
- Offence involving home invasion
- Fear or loss of confidence caused by the offence
- Risk of or actual injury to persons or damage to property
- Impact of offence on a business

Categories arising from consequence are as follows:

CONSEQUENCE - category 1 - high

Serious physical and/or psychological harm caused to the victim
Serious detrimental effect on a business activity

CONSEQUENCE - category 2 - medium

Some physical and/or psychological harm caused to the victim
Some detrimental effect on a business activity

CONSEQUENCE - category 3 - lesser

No or minimal physical or psychological harm caused to the victim
No or minimal detrimental effect on a business activity

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

SECOND STAGE

The second stage is to consider seriousness by assessing the culpability of the offender.

Levels of seriousness may be demonstrated by one or more of the following:

SERIOUSNESS – level A - high

- Use of any weapon to inflict significant injury
- Production of a firearm or imitation firearm to threaten violence
- Use of substantial force or violence in the commission of the offence
- Substantial duration of offence
- Substantial risk of serious harm or injury to the public
- A leading role where offending is a group activity
- Breach of a high degree of trust
- Sophisticated nature of offence/significant planning

SERIOUSNESS – level B - medium

- Production of a weapon other than a firearm or imitation firearm to threaten violence
- Use of significant force or violence in the commission of the offence
- Threat of violence by any weapon (but which is not produced)
- A significant role where offending is a group activity
- Some degree of planning involved
- Abuse of position of trust
- Targeting victim on basis of vulnerability due to personal circumstances
- Targeting tourists and visitors
- Other cases where characteristics for levels A or C are not present

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

SERIOUSNESS – level C - lesser

- Involved through coercion, intimidation or exploitation
- Little or no planning
- Limited awareness or understanding of offence
- Threat or use of minimal force
- No weapon nor threat of one

THIRD STAGE

Having determined the consequence and level of seriousness find the starting point by consulting the grid below.

Maximum sentence is 'x'⁵.

Percentages are approximations and may not divide neatly, so that some adjustment is permissible.

	High Seriousness – level A	Medium Seriousness – level B	Lesser Seriousness – level C
Consequence – category 1	SP 75% x Range 60-90% x	SP 60% x Range 45-75% x	SP 30% x Range 15-45% x
Consequence – category 2	SP 60% x Range 45-75% x	SP 40% x Range 25-55% x	SP 20% x Range 5-35% x
Consequence – category 3	SP 45% x Range 30–60%	SP 20% x Range 5-35% x	SP 10% x Range non-custodial – 20%

⁵ Where the maximum sentence is life imprisonment, simply for the purposes of the calculation 'x' is to be treated as 30 years, (but please note that this does not have the effect of meaning a sentence where the maximum is life can never be more than 30 years).

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

FOURTH STAGE

Having determined the starting point, consider the following non-exhaustive list of aggravating and mitigating factors of the offence and adjust upwards or downwards if required, taking care not to double-count factors considered in stages 1 and 2.

AGGRAVATING FACTORS of the offence

- Steps taken to prevent the victim reporting
- Offence committed over sustained period of time
- Attempts to conceal/dispose of evidence
- Restraint, abduction or additional degradation of the victim
- Involving others through coercion, intimidation or exploitation
- Attempt to conceal identity (eg wearing a mask)
- Prevalence of the offence
- Offence motivated by greed or desire for luxury

MITIGATING FACTORS of the offence

- Minor role in group offending
- Property restored

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

STEP 2

Adjust the figure within the range for the aggravating and mitigating factors affecting the offender.

AGGRAVATING FACTORS of offender

- Previous convictions for robbery offences
- Relevant convictions for other offences
- Offence committed whilst on bail
- Dangerousness

MITIGATING FACTORS of offender

- Good character
- Physical or mental disability or ill-health
- Remorse, particularly where evidenced by voluntary reparation to the victim
- Steps taken to address offending behavior
- Age and/or lack of maturity
- Offending motivated by genuinely desperate circumstances
- Assistance given to the authorities

STEP 3

Credit should be given for a guilty plea as appropriate. A reduction of one-third should be given for a guilty plea entered at the earliest practicable opportunity. Credit will usually reduce significantly the later the

STEP 4

Adjust the figure on assessing totality if sentencing for more than one offence. If appropriate, dangerousness should also be considered.

This guideline should be read in conjunction with Practice Directions 8 A-D, numbers 1 to 4 of 2019.

STEP 5

Credit must be given for time spent on remand for the relevant offence, to be calculated with precision.

STEP 6

Finally, consider ancillary and restraining orders, confiscation, compensation, etc, if applicable.

Pass the Sentence

The court must give reasons explaining the construction of the sentence in a way that can be readily understood by the defendant, in particular justifying any departure from the guideline.

⁶ See the requirements for assessing time on remand in Gomes v The State 2015 UKPC 8, see para 12; Shonovia Thomas v The Queen Appeal no.6 of 2010; and Romeo Da Costa Hall v The Queen 2011 CCJ 6.
