CONSULTANCY SERVICES FOR Tree Crop Baseline Survey (Consultant)

THE Government of Saint Lucia (GOSL) allocates funding on an annual basis to facilitate the implementation of projects/programs in the agriculture sector geared towards enhancing the food and nutrition security of the country. Funding is sourced from local revenues as well as from external partners in the form of grants, loans and technical assistance. These funds are often directed towards advancement of food security, improved diversification of exports, enhanced livelihood security and a reduction of vulnerability to climate change, through a focus on tree crops. The resources provided must be utilized within the allocated period and in accordance with the project scope and budget, in keeping with the Finance Act and Procurement Guidelines/Regulations of the Government of Saint Lucia.

The Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries Food Security and Rural Development, the Executing Agency, now wishes to procure consultancy services for the position of Tree Crop Baseline Survey (Consultant).

The objective of the consultancy is to conduct a comprehensive baseline survey of tree crops across the island. This survey aims to gather critical data on the distribution, health, and productivity of tree crops, which will inform future interventions for the tree crops project. The findings will provide actionable insights that can drive improvements in farming practices, support farmer education, expansion and rehabilitation of tree crops, and ultimately contribute to the growth and sustainability of the tree crop industry.

The Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries, Food Security and Rural Development now invites interested and eligible individual consultants to submit Expressions of Interest indicating relevant qualifications and experience as stipulated in the Scope of Works contained in the attached Terms of Reference.

Electronic copies of the Expressions of Interest must be sent via e-mail to the address below, no later than 10:00 a.m. September 30, 2024. Submissions shall include a cover page displaying the name and address of the applicant and the subject line shall be clearly marked "Expression of Interest – Consultancy Services for "Tree Crop Baseline Survey".

Following the assessment of submissions, the most technically capable and appropriately experienced applicant will be invited to negotiate a contract to provide the consultancy services. GOSL reserves the right to accept or reject late applications or to cancel the present invitation partially or in its entirety. It will not be bound to assign any reason for not shortlisting any applicant and will not defray any costs incurred by any applicant in the preparation and submission of Expressions of Interest.

Name: TBD

Job Title**: Tree Crop Baseline Survey (Consultant)

Division/Department: Extension and Advisory Services

Programme/Project Number: Tree Crop Expansion and Rehabilitation Project

Duty Station: Saint Lucia

Expected Start Date of Assignment: 7 October, 2024

Duration: 33 days

Reports to: Tree Crop Project Coordinator

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF TASK(S) AND OBJECTIVES TO BE ACHIEVED

THIS consultancy will be supporting activities to be implemented under the Tree Crop Rehabilitation and Expansion Project of the Ministry of Agriculture entitled, "Improved Food Security, Diversification of Exports, livelihood Security and Resilience to Climate Change, Through Tree Crop Expansion and Rehabilitation."

The project seeks to establish 100 acres of tree crops around the island (Soursop, Mango, Breadfruit, Avocado and Coconut) with the incorporation of root crops and vine crops as cover crops for aduration of 3 years. The main objective of the project is to facilitate advancement towards food security, improved diversification of exports, enhanced livelihood security and a reduction of vulnerability to climate change, through a focus on selected tree crops.

As we continue to record a low contribution of the agricultural sector to GDP, approximately 1.7% on average from 2016 to 2021 and the constant elevated annual food import bills, this prompts for the continuous revision of measures to maximize returns to the sector and the country overall.

The selected producers under the project will be linked to exporters as well as local traders in fresh produce as this approach will see several benefits to the sector. The project is targeting land in valley areas that are no longer under banana cultivation; preferably where surface water sources are readily available to facilitate irrigation.

Considering Climate change poses significant challenges to tree crop production in St. Lucia; affecting soil health, changes in weather patterns and emergence of pests and diseases, there is a need for adaptation strategies, including the development and introduction of resilient crop varieties and the adoption of sustainable agricultural practices. Addressing these challenges through informed policy and practice will be crucial for ensuring the long-term viability and productivity of tree crops in St. Lucia.

The Ministry of Agriculture (MOA) is currently seeking to recruit the services of a consultant to conduct a comprehensive baseline survey of tree crops across the island. This survey aims to gather critical data on the distribution, health, and productivity of tree crops, which will inform future interventions for the tree crops project. The findings will provide actionable insights that can drive improvements in farming practices, support farmer education, expansion and rehabilitation of tree crops, and ultimately contribute to the growth and sustainability of the tree crop industry.

Project Outputs:

Employment increased by 100 persons (1 worker per acre cultivated)

Increased acreage under cultivation of selected tree species by 100 acres

An increase in availability of the selected fruit tree species for export.

Outcomes

- Increased income security for households and the community at large
- Enhanced food security and nutrition for households and the community at large
- Improved environmental conditions through increased carbon sequestration, enhanced slope stability and reduction of soil loss
- Reduced dependence on inorganic sources of plant nutrition, leading to a reduction in the cost of production to the farmer, through leaf litter from the fruit trees over time
- Improved balance of trade (food) through increased exportation and reduced importation of related products

Reporting Lines

The Consultant will report directly to the MOA Project Coordinator for St. Lucia on all matters regarding execution of duties, however, the Extension and Advisory Services Unit will provide general oversight for the survey and may from time-to-time request information/updates from the consultant.

Tasks and responsibilities

In close collaboration with project Coordinator, Chief of the Extension and Advisory Division and Director of Agricultural Services, the Consultant will undertake activities which will help shape the future of tree crop crops rehabilitation and expansion in Saint Lucia.

The consultant will carry out the following main tasks:

- Specific tasks
- Convene a stakeholder consultation meeting with agricultural Extension officers island wide.
- Design the survey and develop data collection instrument.
- Survey should gather data on current acreages of the targeted tree crop species
- The instruments should gather data on acreages available for expansion and rehabilitation
- Hire enumerators for data collection
- Pilot test the questionnaire with a small sample to ensure clarity, relevance, reliability and validity.
- Conduct the survey according to the planned methodology. Ensure proper handling of data and adherence to ethical guidelines of the Ministry of Agriculture.
- Perform both qualitative and quantitative analysis to identify trends, patterns, and correlations in the data.
- Submit a comprehensive report including methodology, findings, analysis, recommendations and conclusions.
- Based on the findings, develop practical recommendations to address identified gaps in the baseline survey
- Submit a comprehensive list of tree crops farmers in Saint Lucia highlighting their location, contact information and their willingness to participate in the tree crop rehabilitation and expansion project.
- Establish a plan for monitoring the implementation of recommendations and evaluating their impact.

Deliverables
1. Convene a stakeholder consultation meeting with Extension Officers Island wide.
2. Design the survey and develop data collection instrument.
3. Hiring of enumerators
4. Pilot test the questionnaire with a small sample of farmers to ensure clarity, validity, and reliability.
5. Conduct the survey according to the planned methodology. Ensure proper handling of data and adherence to ethical guidelines of the Ministry of Agriculture.
6. Perform both qualitative and quantitative analysis to identify trends, patterns, and correlations in the data.
7. Submit a comprehensive report including methodology, findings, analysis, and conclusions.
8. Based on the findings, develop practical recommendations to address identified gaps in the baseline survey.
9. Submit a comprehensive list of tree crops farmers in Saint Lucia highlighting their location, contact information and their willingness to participate in the tree crop rehabilitation and expansion project.
Total number of working days

The consultant is expected to work with the Agricultural Extension and Advisory staff from all regions as necessary.

- Deliverables (including any interim deliverables, requirements for drafts etc.) including dates

The consultant should possess the following qualifications:

- Advanced Degree in Agriculture (BSc), Environmental Science (BSc), or a related field.
- Resume for Key experts with supporting certified copies of certificates
